

Inspector General

Neil Robertson

Chief Deputy
Inspector General

Amarik K. Singh

Independent Prison Oversight

December 2023 Local Inquiry Team Case Blocks Published in February 2024

From December 1, 2023, through December 31, 2023, the OIG's Local Inquiry Team monitored and closed five cases. This document presents all monitored and closed cases during this period.

OIG Case Number 23-0064710-INQ

Rating Assessmen Satisfactory

Case Summary

On September 21, 25, and 29, 2023, a librarian allegedly told an incarcerated person that she would never allow a second incarcerated person to work in the library because she did not like the second incarcerated person. The librarian also allegedly engaged in unprofessional conduct by sharing her personal problems with incarcerated persons.

Case Disposition

During the inquiry, the investigator discovered potential staff misconduct identified in the Allegation Decision Index, suspended the inquiry, and referred the matter to the Office Internal Affairs' Allegation Investigation Unit, which accepted the case for investigation.

Overall Inquiry Assessment

Overall, the department performed satisfactorily.

OIG Case Number 23-0062808-INQ

Rating Assessment Satisfactory

Case Summary

On July 2, 2023, a sergeant allegedly ignored and refused to investigate an incarcerated person's safety concerns and returned the incarcerated person to a general population yard where he would continue to have safety concerns.

Case Disposition

The hiring authority conducted an inquiry and found insufficient evidence to sustain the allegations.

Overall Inquiry Assessment

Overall, the department performed satisfactorily.

Page 1 of 3

December 2023 Local Inquiry Team Case Blocks
Published in February 2024

Amarik K. Singh Inspector General Neil Robertson Chief Deputy Inspector General

OIG Case Number 23-0062696-INQ

Rating Assessment Satisfactory

Case Summary

On August 18, 2023, two officers allegedly failed to take immediate action when an incarcerated person had a medical emergency.

Case Disposition

The Office of Internal Affairs' Allegation Investigation Unit manager suspended the inquiry and referred it to the Office of Internal Affairs' Allegation Investigation Unit after the investigator discovered the two subject officers and a third officer engaged in potential misconduct identified on the Allegation Decision Index. The OIG concurred and did not monitor the investigation after the manager referred the case.

Overall Inquiry Assessment

The department performed satisfactorily.

OIG Case Number 23-0062768-INQ

Rating Assessment Satisfactory

Case Summary

On Augusts 22, 2023, an officer allegedly conducted a cell search improperly and damaged an incarcerated person's personal property during the search.

Case Disposition

The hiring authority conducted an inquiry and found insufficient evidence to sustain the allegation.

Overall Inquiry Assessment

Overall, the department performed satisfactorily.

OIG Case Number 23-0063654-INQ

Rating Assessment

Satisfactory

Case Summary

On September 6, 2023, an officer allegedly improperly shared an incarcerated person's confidential information with two other incarcerated persons.

Amarik K. Singh Inspector General Neil Robertson Chief Deputy Inspector General

> Independent Prison Oversight

December 2023 Local Inquiry Team Case Blocks Published in February 2024

Case Disposition

The hiring authority conducted an inquiry and found insufficient evidence to sustain the allegation.

Overall Inquiry Assessment

Overall, the department performed satisfactorily.